Important Messages & Traditions

For all new members, this meeting offers an opportunity to gain an insight into some of the key symbolism and practices of Freemasonry and a significant advance in Masonic knowledge.

For Master Masons, it completes the cycle of degrees for four brethren who have joined the ranks in recent years and are now eligible to receive a document that will become their passport to Masonry universal.

Assistance with the supper would be appreciated.

IN FOR THE COLD

During the Winter months a number of Brethren have assisted me in all sorts of weather to collect admission fees at the gate for the Sorell Football Club's home games in Sorell. How fitting that it should be known as Pembroke Park!

We've been there on frosty cold mornings, windy afternoons, in rain and sleet. There were days when the sun shone and the swallows swept low over of the grass, and others when we were alternatively warmed by the sun and cooled under cloud.

Most days, the Pembroke Banner was on display nearby.

Although we were there to collect money, the best thing about it has been that, throughout the season, we have acted as an unofficial 'welcoming party' to locals and visitors. We've got to know quite a few of the locals and they've got to know us. Some have taken the time to stop and chat, and some have asked how we came to be doing what we're doing.

The Football Club has paid $1,035 for the help, half of which will be donated to the Midway Point Scouts Group.

Beyond that, the task has given the Lodge a presence in the community of Sorell that it's rarely had before.

Affiliation

Bro Adam WAVELL-BIRD

Married Sales Manager
PA 70 Browns Road, Copping TAS 7174

Bro Bird was initiated in Southern Queensland Lodge #29 QC, received his third degree in June 2008 and has served a term as Junior Deacon.

He has recently moved to Tasmania and, having settled in the district, has applied to join Pembroke with a view to continuing his active participation in Freemasonry.

Adam has been invited to visit Pembroke over the next few months in order to get to know the brethren before being balloted.
